

Fulcrum Partners Continues Strategic Growth Plan, Adding New Financial Consultant

Ponte Vedra Beach, FL (May 3, 2016)

Fulcrum Partners LLC announces the addition of Financial Consultant, Wesley Hackett to the company's nationwide team. Fulcrum Partners is one of the leading and largest executive benefits consultancies in the United States, and has eleven offices located across the country, in addition to its corporate headquarters in Ponte Vedra Beach, Florida. Hackett, an Orlando native, will be part of Fulcrum Partner's Orlando executive benefits consulting and institutional benefit financing services office.

A company founder and Managing Director, Scott Cahill, also based in the Orlando office, said, "Wes grew up working in his family's construction company. He has insight and an earnest commitment to serve and support businesses and family-owned companies. He is already proving himself to be a valuable asset in helping Fulcrum Partners reach its aggressive growth and service goals."

In addition to his role at Classic Contractors Unlimited, Wesley Hackett has been a Financial Representative with Lelle & Mitchell Wealth Management and a Financial Advisor with AXA Advisors, where he specialized in working with Orange County Public Schools on 403(b) plans, helping educators realize pre-and post-retirement objectives. Hackett is a graduate of the University of Central Florida and is the company's second new team member added this year.

Company Managing Director, Andrew Hart, Washington, D.C., says, "Now is an exciting time for Fulcrum Partners. Our company is growing, building new strategic alliances and facilitating some very creative and forward-thinking initiatives. It's not surprising that we are attracting exemplary talent."
