Fulcrum Partners Executive Benefits Expands Orlando Team

Ponte Vedra Beach, FL (October 13, 2016)

With the announcement of the addition of financial consultant, Jonathan Kearn, Fulcrum Partners LLC, continues its aggressive expansion as one of the leading and largest executive benefits consultancies in the United States. Kearn, who will join the Fulcrum Partners Orlando office, is the fifth new financial professional to become part of the Fulcrum Partners team this year.

Scott Cahill, a company founder and the managing director of Fulcrum Partners Orlando says, “The Fulcrum Partners strategic growth plan has resulted in significant expansion in our Orlando, Chicago, and Los Angeles offices over the past eight months. We’ve also seen steady growth at our nine other nationwide locations. Jon Kearn, with twelve years of private practice experience providing effective and efficient financial solutions, exemplifies the type of young talent Fulcrum Partners is attracting as an executive benefits consultancy that is both highly knowledgeable and disruptively creative.”

Jonathan Kearn, formerly with New York Life, grew up in his family’s success-driven business, Kearn and Associates. He is a graduate of the University of Florida Honors Program, the NYLIC University Insurance Program, and holds a Series 6 Securities license and 2-15 Health & Life.

Chris Nyland, managing director of the company’s offices in Charleston, SC observes, “Next year, Fulcrum Partners celebrates its 10-year anniversary. We anticipate further advancements and growth as we continue delivering personalized attention and bespoke solutions for the integrated executive compensation and institutional benefits financing needs of organizations and individuals.”
