Fulcrum Partners and the ValMark Global Gift Fund Match Donations in Support of Daniel Kids

PONTE VEDRA BEACH, FLA. (Sept. 7, 2017) – The Ponte Vedra Beach office of Fulcrum Partners LLC has partnered with Valmark Global Gift Fund in a $14,600 donation to the Jacksonville-based, child service agency Daniel Kids.

Fulcrum Partners is one of the largest privately-held executive benefits consultancies in the US, with thirteen offices nationwide and more than $6B of assets under management. As a member firm of the Valmark Financial Group, Fulcrum Partners is both a long-time supporter of Daniel Kids and an active participant in the Valmark Global Gift Fund's program for matching donations.

Through this initiative, Daniel Kids, Florida's oldest child-serving agency, received a $7,300 grant from Fulcrum Partners Ponte Vedra Beach that the Valmark Global Gift Fund then matched, dollar for dollar. The $14,600 donation will support Daniel Kids in serving thousands of abandoned, abused and neglected children. Jim Clark, president and CEO of Daniel Kids, said he deeply values the support of Fulcrum Partners and Valmark Global Gift Fund. "We are so grateful," Clark said, "To have organizations – both local and national – that recognize the importance of our mission. With the help of these stellar organizations, we can continue to assist about 2,000 children and families every day."

Each year, Valmark Financial Group contributes ten percent of its annual profits to charitable programs through the Valmark Global Gift Fund. In addition to the matched donation for Daniel Kids, Fulcrum Partners and the Valmark Global Gift

Fun have helped support the building of a vocational school in Rwanda, and other national and international programs

Bruce Brownell, a founder and managing director at Fulcrum Partners, said, "Daniel Kids has been serving the needs of children in the Jacksonville and north Florida area, for more than a century. Fulcrum Partners is proud to support Daniel Kids in its unflinching commitment to local children in need."
