Fulcrum Partners Supports Feeding Children Everywhere

PONTE VEDRA BEACH, FL -- (October 22, 2019) With the commitment of Co-Founder and Managing Director, G. Scott Cahill, Fulcrum Partners, LLC is a supporter of Feeding Children Everywhere (FCE). Dedicated to sustainability, Feeding Children Everywhere offers a Full Cart program to help working individuals and families extend their grocery budget and provide career services, international development, domestic meal distribution, disaster relief and micro farming initiatives.

FCE describes its mission as a commitment to providing healthy meals to those in need, to sustainability and to making each giver's contribution truly matter. In 2018 alone, FCE saw 83,242 volunteers package 15,952,172 meals at 342 Hunger Projects for children and families in need. Over the past eight years, FCE has helped distribute 108,994,703 meals to children and families worldwide.

Scott Cahill said, "In supporting FCE, my wife Joanie and I know that not only are we helping provide children and adults in need with nutritious food, we are doing so by working with a 501(c)(3) nonprofit organization that is transparent in its process and truly dedicated to sustainable initiatives. FCE provides a program that connects working families with life-changing resources and helps them take control of their future."

Fulcrum Partners is one of the nation's leading executive benefits consultancies.

With more than $7 billion in assets under management, Fulcrum Partners is led by a team of thirteen managing directors who average more than 31 years in executive compensation and benefits consulting.
