Fulcrum Partners Announces NQ Connect During Wealth + Retirement EVOLVE National Conference

ATLANTA, GA -- (Sept 14, 2021) More than a dozen executive benefits advisory professionals from Fulcrum Partners, a OneDigital Company, participated in the Wealth + Retirement EVOLVE National Conference. Held in Kansas City, Missouri, the conference officially kicked off on Tuesday, August 31, 2021, with a full three-plus day schedule of speakers, panel discussions and networking events.

Senior Vice Presidents, Retirement, Steve Broadbent, Phil Currie and David Stecher and Managing Director Mike Powers led the panel discussion on “C-Suite Conversations:

Strategies for Attracting, Retaining and Rewarding Key Executives.” During the presentation, the panelists discussed the rollout of their new feature, NQ Connect. A proprietary system, NQ Connect is purpose built to expand the deliverability of nonqualified deferred compensation solutions to a broader range of organizations by size and scope.

Mike Powers said, “The EVOLVE Conference brought to focus how employee benefits are changing to better serve the needs of America’s workforce. Plan sponsors are partnering with their employees and executives to deliver more meaningful benefits, resulting in improved productivity and higher retention, a win-win for both plan sponsors and plan participants.”

Fulcrum Partners Vice President, Kenny Depaola, added, “We are glad to be part of this growing, forward-looking organization. Fulcrum Partners’ alignment with OneDigital has expanded our tools for serving our clients and positioned us to better help employers evaluate their benefits offerings and deliver optimal solutions for their employees, stakeholders and the organization’s future.”
