NQDC Enrollment Webinar from Fulcrum Partners, a OneDigital Company

ATLANTA, GA -- (October 27, 2021) Fulcrum Partners, a OneDigital Company, is offering a NQDC Enrollment Webinar (nonqualified deferred compensation plan), hosted by Senior Vice Presidents, Retirement, Monte Harrick and Steve Broadbent. Scheduled for Tuesday, November 2, 2021, at 10:00 AM Pacific Time/ 1:00 PM Eastern Time, the online educational seminar, "NQ Enrollments: What Executives Need to Do Now," looks at pertinent insights to help alleviate some of the stress and uncertainties that come with making decisions today involving payouts that occur years in the future.

"The webinar," said Monte Harrick, "will be extremely insightful for plan sponsors, human resources executives, CFOs, other executive decision makers and the plan participants themselves. Enrollment season comes at the time of year many executives are already facing a range of Q4 demands, which means they need retirement plan education that cuts to the chase and allows them to make informed, strategic decisions."

Registration for “NQ Enrollments: What Executives Need to Do Now,” includes access to the recorded digital download, following the event. Among the topics to be examined will be amounts to defer, understanding timing and form of plan distributions, changing plan elections, tax planning options and other key information to position NQ plan participants and plan sponsors for long-term financial stability.

“NQDC plans,” said Steve Broadbent, “provide a way for companies to competitively incentivize and reward key talent, partnering with employees in building retirement security and financial wellness. An NQDC plan paired with education offered about the plan demonstrates that the organization is committed to empowering the success of its workforce, which is a company’s most valuable asset.”

Plan participants, plan sponsors, and other interested parties can register at www.fulcrumpartnersllc.com/enrolling-in-nqdc-webinar/
